APPLICATION GRANTED
SO ORDERED:

Vincent L. Briccetti, U.S.D.J.

Dated: 3/17/20

White Plains, NY

Bail conditions modified to remove electronic monitoring.

Dear Judge Briccetti:

I represent Dorothy McAllister, who was arrested on October 3, 2019, and whose bail conditions, set by Magistrate Judge Smith, included electronic monitoring and a co-signed $50,000 bond. She is also subject to a curfew as set by her Pretrial Services Officer. As a result of Ms. McAllister's compliance with her bail conditions and progress with treatment, the government and Pretrial Services have now determined that electronic monitoring of her is no longer necessary. Pretrial Services advises that it needs a court order to take Ms. McAllister off the monitoring, thus the purpose of this letter is to request an order that such condition be eliminated from her bail conditions.

The government and Pretrial Services consent to this modification. Your Honor's consideration of this request is appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

Clinton W. Calhoun, III
